

Everything You Need About the CertainTeed Roofing Warranty

CertainTeed roofing Warranty.

If you are a homeowner looking for quality coverage for your roof, CertainTeed offers some of the best warranty products available. Learn more about what this reliable roofing warranty covers and its features and benefits.

What Types of Coverage Are Offered?

CertainTeed's warranty offers a variety of coverage options for homeowners. Depending on your roof, you may find coverage against manufacturing defects for up to 10 years and against weather-related damage such as hail and wind for as much as Lifetime Limited Coverage. CertainTeed also offers optional extended coverage that could provide additional protection against material defects or premature wear and tear caused by extreme weather conditions.

What Types of Roofing Materials Are Covered?

CertainTeed's warranty covers a wide range of residential roofing materials, including asphalt shingles, laminated shingles, shake and synthetic slate, metal roof systems, flat/low slope membranes. To guarantee the quality of your materials and installation throughout the life of your roof, be sure to choose credentialed CertainTeed contractors – certified installers have access to CertainTeed's Carefree program that offers extra coverage

How Long Is the Warranty Good For?

CertainTeed's standard warranty protection is for up to 50 years on products for residential applications. Barrel vault roofs may have different coverage periods based on certain criteria defined in the product-specific warranty document.

What Conditions Must Be Met for Coverage?

CertainTeed requires that certified contractors use approved products and techniques for installation to ensure coverage with the warranty. All warranty requests must also be accompanied by a copy of the original invoice from an authorized CertainTeed contractor associated with the project. Additionally, all warranties require proof of proper maintenance on an annual basis according to manufacturer requirement in order to validate the warranty.

How Can I File a Claim and Receive Warranty Benefits?

If you believe that your CertainTeed roof is defective, you may file a claim through the manufacturer. You should contact your certifying contractor and provide them with proof of purchase, including receipt and warranty information, in addition to details on the defect. Once approved, you can receive maximum benefits from CertainTeed's warranty coverage for repair and replacement costs associated with an eligible defect.